

Mobility and Exchange Programs

«KROK» University students, who have English language proficiency of Upper Intermediate level (B2), which will let them follow the lectures in English and pass the exams, have the opportunity to spend an academic semester in partnership educational institutions of Higher Business School - National Louis University (Poland), Leon Kozminski University of Warsaw (Poland), University of Dabrowa Gornicza (Poland), Hanze University Groeningen (the Netherlands), Turiba University (Latvia), Mykolas Romeris University (Lithuania), Kodolányi János University of Applied Sciences (Hungary). The students can also take part in summer and winter schools offered by our partners in Poland, Germany, Italy, etc. The students can also participate in academic and educational tours to Italy, Poland, the Netherlands, Austria and get acquainted with the history, culture, traditions of other countries, fulfilling the cross-cultural component of the curricula

Double Degree Programs

«KROK» University is implementing the following Double Degree Programs:

- Ukrainian-Austrian Program in Export Oriented Management

is implemented by «KROK» University (Kyiv, Ukraine) along with IMC University of Applied Sciences (Krems, Austria). Program Features: obtaining of two diplomas: Ukrainian - in International Economics and Austrian one - in Export Oriented Management; combining of fundamental educational programs in International Economics with applied thrust of the Austrian program; language of instruction - English; extensive practical training of students. Applicant must submit a document certifying the passing of an internationally recognized English test IELTS (C1 – for Master, B2 - to study for Bachelor)

- Ukrainian-Dutch Double Degree Bachelor Program is implemented by «KROK» University in cooperation with the Dutch University of Applied Sciences for Business Professionals (Breda, the Netherlands). The main goal of the project for students is receiving of a qualitative education to get Bachelor Degree in accordance with EU standards. The program benefits are determined by its unique characteristics. The main ones are:

- International diploma of the accredited Program of Dutch University
- Competence approach to study with the formation of "competence portfolio"
- Practically-oriented training
- Modern methodical approach
- Development of entrepreneurial skills
- Mentoring as part of the educational concept

- KROK Business School training program International MBA by the formula "1+1". The essence of the formula is that learning to Program General MBA of KROK Business School, students may, with the second semester in parallel study on-line Program of Swiss Montreux Business School (hereinafter referred to SMBS, Montreux, Switzerland). Thus, after half of the course the graduate program International MBA gets 2 degrees: an MBA from the KROK Business School and Diploma of Master of Business Administration SMBS

«KROK» University

Internationalization

ALBION
EDUCATION

About «KROK» University

License of the Ministry of Education and Science of Ukraine series AE № 636460 of June 10, 2015

Founded in 1992 «KROK» University is one of the best-ranking private higher educational institutions in Ukraine. In 2003 the Ministry of Education and Science of Ukraine accredited the University at the IV (highest) level. Quality management system of «KROK» University is certified under 9001:2008

«KROK» University is the team of about 5000 students, more than 550 of them are international students from 30 countries all over the world, and about 450 academic staff, 70% are PhD holder. The first enrolment of international students was made in 2001. Moreover, the University offers an academic program in International Economics (full-time studies), Finance and Credit, Management (part-time studies) which are taught in Russian, as well as International Economics and Ukrainian-Austrian Program, where the language of instruction is English

Main fields of activity

Enterprise Economics, Marketing, Finance and Credit, International Information, International Economics, International Business, Logistics, Foreign Economic Activity Management, Psychology, Computer Sciences, Land Management, Financial and Economic Security Management, Administrative Management, Project Management, Educational Institution Management, Business Administration, TQM, Innovational Activity Management etc

One of the priority fields of «KROK» University is the development of international cooperation

International Office of «KROK» University was established to carry out the development of international relations and initiatives of «KROK» University

The International Office was originally established in 1999 to respond to the needs of a growing number of international students coming to study in Ukraine. Today training of foreign citizens still remains one of the priorities of the Office

The overall international activity of the University is conducted in accordance with the University Strategic plan and concerns the following issues:

- International students training
- Double Degree academic programs
- Students and lecturers exchange with foreign educational institutions
- Internship abroad and educational tourism
- Fundraising
- Establishing of University branches abroad
- Grant project elaboration

International projects

One of the priority directions of «KROK» University international cooperation policy is the participation in different international projects among them:

- Project WIPATH (Workshops for Introduction of Practical Approaches in Transforming the Higher Education in Ukraine), carried out in cooperation with Sevilia University (Spain), Higher Business School – Louis National University (Poland), Innovations Techopark (Sweden) is a significant contribution to higher education development in Ukraine
- Project "Business Management Education in Ukraine" (Poland-Ukraine) is aimed at improving the Ukrainian management education system
- Teaching methods seminars for the major Foreign Activity Management (Krems University of Applied Sciences, Austria)
- MATRA Project in Administrative Transfer is the training of professionals in the sphere of municipal administration. Project is implemented jointly by Ukraine and the Netherlands with support of the Ukrainian Cities Association and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Netherlands
- Erasmus Mundus. Since 2011 «KROK» University is the partner of EMP-AIM consortium within Erasmus Mundus Grant «Erasmus Mundus Partnership for Belarus, Ukraine and Moldova». The project coordinator is Mykolas Romeris University, Lithuania
- TEMPUS project «Entrepreneur Alumni Network». The Project coordinator is Hogeschool van Amsterdam (HvA). Project aim is to promote the development of an international university alumni network and graduates employment, to encourage graduates to entrepreneurial activity, to promote economic development
- Erasmus+ «KROK» University developed projects initiatives and applied within Consortiums for the financing by Erasmus+ program

Cooperation possibilities

We are interested in building partnerships and signing bilateral agreements on different fields of cooperation:

- Organization of education for international students
- Student and staff exchange and mobility programs
- Double degree programs
- Internship and career development
- Joint research and educational projects
- Curricula modernization and development
- Educational tourism, summer schools and other activities
- Inter-cultural cooperation
- Cooperation within the framework of EU and other institutions programs

Projects ideas

- Students` services centre creation
- Career centre network development
- Entrepreneurship centre creation
- Project management methodology implementation in HEI management
- Academic honesty office for implementation of honesty principles in academic community
- Development of internationalization strategy
- Project management office creation
- Master`s program in procurement
- Development of Master`s program in mediation
- Development of academic curricula in PhD training

We are ready to consider other forms of cooperation!